

Tail Docking

---

Tail docking should be performed when lambs are as young as possible, ideally around 2 weeks and before 3 months of age. Tail docking is done to help prevent flystrike. Giving the Tetanus vaccine at the time of docking will help prevent complications.